This is going to be the final decision of the ropubli-can party concerning J. H. Mitchell. The party has, indeed, reached this decision dy; and now it simply remains to make lisposition of him in accord with that resolve. Such disposition will certainly be made. Postponement of the present election will not arrest it. The republican party of Oregon is not going to elect him to the senate again, nor opt him as its loader. In other words, the rates established by Mr. Reed's bill are 9 6-10 per cent greater than those charged under the present law, and $2.8-10 per cent. greater than these proposed

We believe we have stated enough to condomn the bill in the eyes of all right-thinking persons, and we call upon the members of the legislature to consider well between the two bills now pending before them prior to taking action upon a matter of such vital importance

This measure shound for it no sense a source of the new constitution of the state in the ofof contention as between Portland and Astoria; there for which he is a condidate. For several nor is it. There is no rivalry between them in matter that relates only to the good of both a matter that retained that to the general welfare of the country. and to the general welfare of the sometry. Private interests are not to be considered in a matter of such inportance. How to disburden the commerce of the Columbia river by providing the best and chespest available facilities for plutage, is the result to be reached. The bill offered with the sanction of the Pertland board of trade is clearly the one to effect the reforms desired.
